

On-site Advisors

The School has begun the process of appointing on-site advisors/mentors at our major hospitals. These advisors are physicians based at our clinical centers and major affiliated hospitals who are available to students for career, academic and wellness advice and support. This program will be expanded to other hospitals in the near future.